Publication of "Hijaz no Okurimono"

The Daido Life Foundation announces the publication of "Hijaz no Okurimono" as a new collection in the "Modern Literature of Asia" Series.

"Hijaz no Okurimono" is the 72nd collection in the "Modern Literature of Asia" Series, and the 11th literary work from Pakistan.

1. About the Book:

Title	Hijaz no Okurimono (Original Title: Armughan-e-Hijaz)
Originally Written	Pakistan
Author	Muhammad Iqbal (1877-1938)
Translator	Hiroji Kataoka
Publishing Medium	Paper book, E-book

Muhammad Iqbal is the "national poet" of Pakistan. This poetry collection is written in Persian and Urdu languages and is the last work that compiled his ideas and philosophies over the past 40 years.

He grieved over the future of the Islamic society that would follow the course of decline. We would appreciate it if you could feel Iqbal's messages that entrusted the regeneration and arousal of Muslims to poetry.

2. About "Modern Literature of Asia" Series

Of modern literature of other Asian countries, we translate and publish only the selected ones which are desirable to be introduced to Japan. The purpose of this activity is to understand aspects of other Asian countries today through their literature. This activity is not for profit. We have handled the translation and publication by ourselves. We have worked on this unprecedented activity as a foundation established by a company.

We have published 2,500 copies of each collection, and donated them to libraries and universities in Japan. We don't market them.

We are working on the digitization of our collections which have already been published, and now we have digitized 50 collections listed below, including the latest one: "Hijaz no Okurimono".

You can download and read them for free from our website.
